Recruitment Officer

About the Massachusetts Service Alliance:
The Massachusetts Service Alliance (MSA), established in 1991, is a private, nonprofit organization that serves as the state commission on community service. Through service and volunteerism MSA builds a stronger social fabric in our communities across the Commonwealth. We are committed to increasing the number of people engaged in meaningful volunteer and corps-based opportunities across Massachusetts that are both fulfilling for the volunteers and that meet critical needs in our community. As a dedicated partner to community organizations throughout Massachusetts, we are attuned to critical areas of need—from education and workforce development to health and the environment—and utilize volunteerism and service to address those needs in order to make our Commonwealth stronger.

The Massachusetts Service Alliance is committed to a just, equitable, diverse, and inclusive work environment. We carry these beliefs into our grantmaking, recruitment and support of board and staff, and how we support the service and volunteerism field in Massachusetts. We invite you to read MSA’s Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Guiding Statement.

We care passionately about service and volunteerism and our employees. For more information about our organization, visit www.mass-service.org.

Job Description Summary: Corps-based service year programs in Massachusetts and across the nation are experiencing severe member recruitment challenges due to a variety of factors, in some cases recognized and understood and others still being explored. The Recruitment Officer will help better understand the recruitment landscape and develop and implement strategies to assist our Massachusetts AmeriCorps programs and the Commonwealth Corps program recruit a full and diverse corps of members in order to meet their individual service member enrollment goals. You will work alongside MSA staff to better understand the specific recruitment challenges facing the National Service field, take inventory of the existing resources used by our staff and partners, develop strategies to reach groups of people that have historically been underrepresented in service programs, and incorporate these elements into a coherent and sustainable plan for immediate and future use. The Recruitment Officer reports to the Director of Training and Technical Assistance and will work closely with the AmeriCorps Team, the Commonwealth Corps Team, Communications Associate, and the Director of Operations and External Relations.
